

Develop Accountable Leaders at Every Level

Dr. Vince Molinaro

Vince's speeches challenges and inspires leaders at all levels to step up and be truly accountable at the personal, team and organizational level.

He focuses specifically on what it takes to lead today in an era of uncertainty. He shows leaders how to create a strong leadership culture where leaders are aligned and fully committed to strategy execution.

Bestselling author and adviser to business leaders

Vince Molinaro has dedicated his life to promoting both personal and organizational accountability in leadership cultures around the world.

He experienced a defining moment early in his career when he saw a respected colleague and mentor succumb to a cancer she believed was the by-product of a stressful, toxic work environment. As a result, Vince vowed to teach business leaders how to build successful organizations by increasing the accountability of their leaders.

The author of several bestselling books including, Accountable Leaders (2020), The Leadership Contract (2013), a New York Times and USA Today bestseller now in its third edition, and The Leadership Contract Field Guide (2018), all published by John Wiley & Sons. Vince has spent more than 20 years as an adviser to boards and senior executives looking to scale up leadership in their organizations.

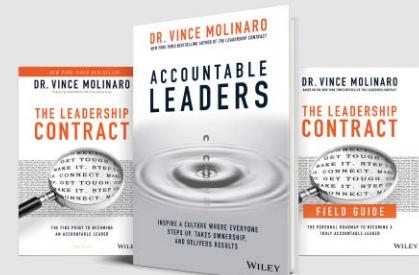

Through his research and experience, Vince knows that leadership accountability is the key ingredient in building a strong, vibrant organizational culture.

As a successful entrepreneur and global senior executive, Vince has made it his calling to confront weak and mediocre leadership. He shows leaders at all levels in organizations worldwide how to step up and fulfill their obligations and responsibilities as real leaders.

Vince's ideas have resonated with audiences and with leaders at all levels. He brings a global perspective from his travels and works with leaders in twenty-five countries and eighty cities. As a forceful keynote speaker at conferences and corporate retreats around the world, he translates first-hand global experiences from the leadership trenches into practical advice on how leaders can build truly accountable leadership cultures.
